

Sinclair Broadcasting uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Their decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary, "Stolen Honor," days before the election does NOT serve the public interest.

Sinclair's actions show why we need stronger media ownership rules. In light of what Sinclair Broadcasting plans, the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
George R. Barnard